

TEACHING ENGLISH TO SPEAKERS OF OTHER LANGUAGES CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

There are many opportunities for teaching English to speakers of other languages (TESOL). This UM-Dearborn certificate program (<https://umdearborn.edu/cehhs/graduate-programs/areas-study/tesol-certificate-online/>) can be completed entirely online and is specifically designed for individuals seeking opportunities both locally or internationally. The certificate will prepare students with the requisite content knowledge and pedagogy to teach English to students or adults outside of the PK-12 public school system. Certificate holders may find careers with non-U.S. agencies/institutions in order to meet international needs to provide English instruction to their student populations.

This certificate does not lead to state teacher certification or a state endorsement. For those interested in PK-12 certification, please refer to the ESL Endorsement (https://www.dropbox.com/s/1fd7k9zad8yp8q2/PEC-EP_EnglishSecondLanguage_Endorsement.pdf?dl=0).

The TESOL certificate program requires 15 graduate credit hours. All of the courses will prepare certificate students with the requisite content knowledge, pedagogy, and skills to teach non-native speakers of English.

The university's academic policies for graduate students (<http://catalog.umd.umich.edu/academic-policies-graduate/>) apply.
