

ARABIC STUDIES

The minor/concentration in Arabic Studies offers a variety of courses in Arabic on cultural topics including Arabic literature, cinema, and modern history. The program welcomes both heritage students and students with no background in Arabic. While the entry-level courses focus on the basic skills of language proficiency, the upper-level courses focus on the cultural issues of the Arab world, and trains students in developing their analytical and critical skills.

In addition to the major requirements, students must complete all CASL Degree Requirements (<http://catalog.umd.umich.edu/undergraduate/college-arts-sciences-letters/>).
